DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

1. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

1. Claims 19-28 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Brederveld et al U.S. Patent Number 5,898,679 in view of Arrowood et al U.S. Patent Number 5,987,521.

Re Claim 1, fig. 1 teaches a WLAN and includes server 105 (wireless communication server); access points 110 (one or more access point) connected to the 105, whereby the 110 wirelessly transmit and receive data to and from MS (remote units) using RF communication such that RS 150 form part of a WLAN, wherein the access points includes a bridging function and filtering table for forwarding of the data to the remote unit. Brederveld et al fails to explicitly teach that the “centralizing filtering and forwarding” function at the server. However, Arrowood et al teaches that a centralizing the filtering and forwarding data at the server would have minimized the complexity and cost. One skilled in the art would have been motivated by Arrowood et al to centralized routing management into the server of Brederveld to reduce cost and complexity. Therefore, it would have been obvious to one ordinary skilled to move the bridging function of the access point to the server to minimize cost and complexity to the access points.

Re Claims 20, 21, refer to Claim 19, wherein the 106 is a conventional network element for connecting the Server to the access points.

Re Claim 22, refer to Claim 19, wherein 106 can adhere to a known IEEE 802 standards.

Re Claim 23, refer to Claim 19, wherein the connection to can be direct connection.

Re Claims 24, 25, refer to Claim 19, wherein additional server and access points can be connected to 106 for additional applications and coverage.

Re Claim 26, refer to Claim 19, WLAN uses unlicensed frequency band because its free.

Re Claims 27, 28, refer to Claim 19, wherein the automatic association is standardized in IEEE 802 and based on the MAC address (remote unit identification).

Response to Arguments

2. Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 19-28 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Conclusion

4. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
